Old Business:

Cherrydale- Orders came in the week after Thanksgiving – distribution delayed by 2 snow days. All orders have been distributed – thank you Kari for your help! Any issues with orders should be directed to Christy. Raised a little over $4,000 – waiting on check from cherrydale

Toy Sale - Took place 12/1-12/3 at the Park United Methodist Church
- We had the most toy donations we have ever had. Hundreds of toys were distributed to our community at a significantly low cost. Leftover toys were donated to the Richland Fire Department for their toy sale via Cora Woods. Over $700 raised for PTG

December Craft Night - Made plates for Santa's cookies – personalization offered. Craft night was a success, and 19 families attended. Thanks to Kate for doing all the decals. $220.13 deposited/venom, expenses have not been subtracted yet

Venmo/Bank - New Venmo Account was created. We will need to create a new account next year as it's attached to a member's phone number, it's connected to Christy's number who is leaving next year. Old bank account under the previous tax ID number has been closed. New bank account using tax ID number assigned when PTG became a 501(c) aka nonprofit organization

Mini Grants- for Rich Murphy and Tom Trowbridge have been reviewed and approved

Upcoming Business:

January Free Event - Postponed until March

February Valentines Dance- February 10th, Kari and Erin. 4-6 pm in the cafeteria.
Dress your best

Color Run- Jessica Basta is no longer able to run the event. Kari will create a committee to run this event.
